CINCINNATI

The Next Place of Holding the G. A. R. Encampment.

The New Commander-in-Chief—Other Notes of the Occasion.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Cincinnati's triumph in securing the national encampment for 1898, and Pennsylvania's victory in winning the commander-in-chief of the Grand Army were the features of the encampment. Both battles were fought. The struggle was precipitated immediately after the executive session was called to order. The selection of the next place of meeting was first taken up, and the rival cities were given a hearing.

On the first ballot Cincinnati received 550 votes and San Francisco 214.

Following the selection of Cincinnati Archbishop Ireland was called to the stage and made a glowing and patriotic speech. He was followed by Gen. Lew Wallace, who made a short address.

The report of the committee on instruction followed this address. It criticized the books on history read in the schools in the South as inaccurate, and suggested some changes. Nominations for Commander-in-Chief were then declared in order and Isaac F. Mack, of Sandusky, O., was nominated by Delegate Brown, of Ohio; J. B. Gobin, of Lebanon, was nominated by Delegate Stewart, of Pennsylvania; George H. Innis, of Boston, by Delegate Wetherbee, of Massachusetts; and John G. Lincoln, of New Hampshire, by Delegate Cogswell, of New Hampshire.

Gobin was elected.

The delegates marched to Music Hall this morning from the Iroquois Hotel to the music of bands and the cheering of their comrades, visitors and citizens.

The procession was draped and festooned in the national colors, surmounted by the coat of arms of the United States, topped with the golden eagle crest. Beneath the arch flags of all nations formed a brilliant cluster. The sides of the arch were of satin banners, bearing the arms of the state of New York.

The balcony was covered with maroon silk plush hangings. Pictures of Washington, Lincoln, Grant and Garfield occupied prominent places. Guards with crossed bayonets barred the doors to the hall. Only comrades with the password were admitted to the galleries and only delegates with credentials were admitted to the main floor. Only the preliminary session of the encampment was open to a limited number of press representatives.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Alfred Lytle, of New York, was today elected senior vice commander of the G. A. R.

After considerable talk and more delay Mr. A. J. Crane is to be checked out as union depot ticket agent and Mr. George Wardfield is to be installed in his stead. Mr. Wardfield has received official notice of it, and the transfer will be made as soon as Traveling Auditor Adams arrives, which will probably be tomorrow.

An old rumor has in some way been revived. This is that Master Mechanic Chambers would leave Paducah and be succeeded by Mr. Hassman, formerly of the city. The rumor was current today, but has been traced to no authentic source. It is engaged for five nights, on account of fair week, and only late fare-comely will be proffered.

The Jefferson Guards, a military company, passed through the city last night in a special car en route to New Orleans.

The wreck was not occasioned by the trucks of the first engine giving way, as stated in one paper, but by a split switch. The train killed was colored, and not white.

There was some lively bumping and shaking when the twelve cars left the track, and when Engineer Kelly looked for his engine, Clay Minges, he found his engine in a roof, safe and sound. The damage to property and rolling stock was great.

VAUDEVILLE GOES ON.

At La Belle Park Theater for This Week.

Opening of Morton's Opera House.—Other Amusement Notes.

Vandeville has been put on at La Belle park in substitute for drama for the remainder of this week. A strong specialty program was rendered last night to a large audience which seemed to take well to the change. The features of the entertainment are very good.

There was an attempted burglary this morning before daylight at the residence of Mr. Curley, 1022 Monroe street. The thief appeared to be a white man.

He opened the gate, propped it so it would not obstruct his exit, and then prised open the shutter. In accomplishing the latter he awoke the family, and Mr. Curley ran out and shot at him twice.

The thief disappeared before the police could catch him.

audiences are promised for the remainder of the week.

As announced exclusively in the Sun a few weeks ago, Morton's opera house opens September 6th with the Peters & Green Comedy Company, for a week's engagement. This is fair week, and Peters and Green, the comedians, will no doubt prove a strong attraction. The Georgia Minstrels follow Peters & Green.

The La Belle park stock company now has two members who are writers. Miss Harla, one of the character women, is engaged in writing both a play and a novel, the material for which she has been collecting for several years. She has traveled all over the world, and has not been back long from Cuba.

The other writer is young Mr. Phelps, a relative of Manager P. A. Phelps. This young man has written a play which is to be put on at La Belle park before the season closes.

In regard to the close of the season the time has not been decided on by the managers of La Belle. It will last as long as the weather is such that the people can attend.

Nellie McHenry, who became such a favorite in Paducah in "A Night at the Circus" a year or two ago, is this year to star in a new play, "Miss Plaster of Paris."

Mr. A. W. Smith, of Cincinnati, father of George Smith, the celebrated boy violinist, was in the city today arranging for an appearance of his son here.

It should be borne well in mind that the Peters & Green Comedy Company is not a week's stand company. It is engaged for five nights, on account of fair week, and only late fare-comely will be proffered.

Number 11 is the date for the minstrels, headed by Billy B. B.

PROMINENT SPEAKER.

Local Governor Hindman Is in the City.

Will speak tonight at the Court House.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Hindman, who speaks at the court house tonight, is an affable gentleman of good address, quick witted, intelligent, and a real man whom it is a pleasure to meet.

He spoke at Clinton last night, and a special from that place to the "Courier-Journal" contains the following:

The heaven of returning prosperity is surely getting in its work when free silver farmers who made faces at round money speakers last year will sit for two hours and hear the National Democratic standard bearer expound his party's principles. They laugh at his jokes, smile when he reminds them of the silverite predictions of thirteen wheat if Bryan was defeated, and they look serious when he tells that this very free silver agitation was in part responsible for the delay of returning good times.

His speech is detailed at some length, and is evidently well worth hearing. He should be greeted by a good crowd tonight.

A CAUTIOUS BURGLAR.

But He Was Unsuccessful at Housebreaking.

IMPROVEMENT NOTES.

How Buildings Are Progressing Here.

Many Being Finished.—New Ones to Go Up.

The handsome new building for Thompson, Wilson & Co., on North Fourth street, opposite Central Fire Station, is now complete, and the office will be moved in Saturday, the entire removal to take place Tuesday.

Work is progressing nicely on the Broadway M. E. church. The addition of windows and doors will make a vast improvement in the external appearance of the structure. The handsome memorial glass, however, is not expected for a month. The first coat of plastering is now being put on, and the last will be begun next week.

The foundation for the Michael residence on North Seventh street near Monroe has been laid. It will be one of the prettiest residences in the city.

The brick work on Mr. L. S. Dubois' new residence on Fountain avenue, West End, began today. The roof on Mr. Jack Culson's new home, adjoining Mr. Dubois' is now being put on, and it will soon be complete.

There are now thirty-nine men employed in making sewerage excavations, and the work is progressing as rapidly as might be expected, considering the drawbacks and delays that have occurred since work began.

Work on the steam heating apparatus is advancing at the county court house, and all the material is on hand. Contractor Hannan expects to complete the system in two or three weeks.

The new fence around the jail has been finished on the South Side. It is of heavy oak, and quite an improvement over the old one. A hanging or two is expected after this term of court by the authorities.

Contractor G. K. Davis will begin putting in the heating apparatus for the county jail in about two weeks. The work when once begun, will not require long.

Mr. W. L. Bennett, the Illinois Central dispatcher, will shortly begin the erection of a handsome two-story frame residence on Jefferson street back of the L. C. hospital.

Mike Redd, the well known and popular lunch man, has rented a part of the Leigh Fruit Company's building at the corner of Second and Broadway, and has opened up an elegant lunch stand, where he is prepared to feed the hungry public with everything that is good and toothsome. Mike's reputation as a good cook is too well known to need a word of recommendation from us. He will keep on hand fresh oysters, roast beef, chicken, all kinds of game, hot weiner-wurst, hot tamales, etc. He will also continue to run his lunch stand and peanut and popcorn roaster on Fourth street, next to the "Register" office. 26a2w

WHAT A CHANGE!

Judge Sanders and the Police Break Up a Nuisance.

No More Lawlessness, Lewdness and Profanity at Ninth and Washington.

A vast change has come over the spirit of their dreams. Reference is made to the law and lawless characters that have long held full sway near Ninth and Washington streets. Yesterday after Judge Sanders administered such a severe roast to the denizens of the locality, in the police court, and told them what they might expect in the future, they returned to their old haunts, but only to brook the terrible intelligence to their friends.

Officer Crow, who is on that beat, says a greater change could not be imagined.

Yesterday there was the utmost quietude and serenity, and none of the old cavorting around with groves of liver revolting profanity and dishabille vagabonds was visible.

One woman attempted to slip in and get a can of beer, but officer Crow was on to her, and she saw him just in time to change her purchase to a bar of soap. Another woman made a similar attempt, but when she saw the officer looking quickly called for a watermelon.

CRAB CIDER BARRED.

They Wouldn't Let Him In at Madisonville.

Mr. Walter Dismukes returned at noon from Madisonville, where he went with Crab Cider, to enter the horse at the races.

He was doomed to disappointment, however, as Dan Ballore, an Owensboro race horse man, was afraid of Crab Cider, and threatened to withdraw his string if the Paducah horse was allowed to enter.

THE MAYFLOWER
Passes up With a Good Passenger List.

The Mayflower came in this morning with 104 excursionists from St. Louis. Some of them were pretty tough customers, evidently, as they visited saloons with as much indifference and unconcern as their male companions.

The first of the respectable dressed women going in the front doors of saloons and drinking over the bar was one which most Paducahians were unfamiliar with, and a great many wondered where the police were. The boat went up Tennessee river at 10 o'clock.
